Subscriptions Nearly Double City's Quota For Fourth War Loan

Bond Sales to Individuals In Sierra Madre Amount to More Than $173,000

Sierra Madre oversubscribed its Fourth War Loan quota by an even $100,000 . . . and there are still many outstanding pledges that will be redeemed within the next week. Then there will be a roundup to determine who are the city's best War Bond salespeople. Ten local citizens have contributed to a fund for the purchase of two $25 bonds, one to be awarded the Block Mother or other woman who has sold the most bonds, and the other to the person who has sold to the greatest number of individuals.

Figures used here are those available up until noon yesterday and members of the local committee say they would not be surprised if the $125,000 quota is nearly doubled when the complete returns are in.

Total bonds sold to date amount to $225,000, with sales to individuals accounting for $175,000. The Sierra Madre total was unexpectedly boosted by sales made to Sierra Madreans in Pasadena amounting to $22,500, for which the city is given credit. Sales to corporations, including the City of Sierra Madre and the Pasadena school board, accounted for $25,000. Sales made to local citizens at defense plants in other communities are credited as Sierra Madre sales.

Pupils of Grammar School Work Hard For Trainer Plane

The War Bond Drive at the grammar school has gone more than a quarter of its way with sales up to noon Tuesday totaling $4,275.20. The children are anxious to make $15,000 by June 9th for the purchase of a trainer plane with the name of Sierra Madre school engraved on a plaque to be attached to the ship.

The public is asked to remember the school when buying "that extra bond". If bond purchases are made through the bank or post office, one may specify that credit is to be given the school—and the receipt issued will so indicate.

Navy Nurse Leaves Message for Women

Looking as trim in her blue Navy blue nurses uniform as the leading lady in a fashion show, Lieut. Alice Black of Portland, Ore., has attracted no end of attention and admiration during the ten days she has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Brown of 125 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. A registered nurse for eight years, she enlisted as a Navy nurse in November when the shortage of nurses to care for the nation's fighting men became acute.

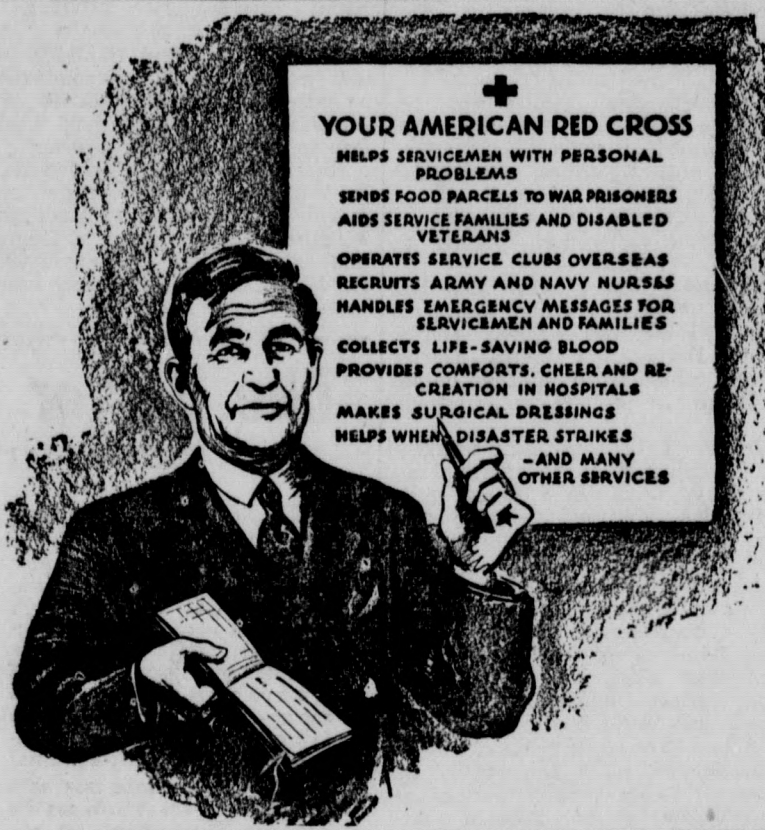

"Nurses are needed desperately in the Navy and all the other services," Lieut. Black said last night before leaving for her post at Hoff General Hospital, Santa Barbara, "and there is no more important thing that women who can qualify can do than to sign up for the nursing service. The need is great now, it will be much greater soon."

Ranger Fed Them

Forest Ranger Harry Grace saw to it that Ben Hosford and his guests at Fern Lodge in Big Santa Anita canyon didn't suffer for the want of food while they were storm bound at the lodge following the rains of February 19 and 21. Parts of the Sturtevant trail between Chantry Flats and the lodge were washed out, but Hosford says the Forest Service has repaired much of the damage and he was able to come down to the city Thursday. During the storm Grace sent in bread and bacon.

Her five sons all graduated from Monrovia High School and are serving their country in various branches of the service. Lieut. Colonel Milton Clark, her eldest son, graduated from "West Point" seven years ago and is now serving with the Ordnance Division of the Army "somewhere in Italy."

Lieut. Lloyd Clark is with an

Generous Response to Red Cross War Fund Appeal Seen as Drive Begins

Confronted with the responsibilities of unprecedented proportions—as the war enters its most crucial stage and with a tremendous task ahead in the post-war period—the American Red Cross opened its 1944 War Fund appeal March 1st, confident that the American people would respond to the limit of their ability to fulfill the national quota of $200,000,000.

The Red Cross faces the third year of United States participation in the war secure in the knowledge that its vast resources have withstood the test, and confident that the people will wholeheartedly rally to its support.

Sierra Madre's quota is $11,800. This is 57% more than the quota of last year.

"In order to secure such a large increase," said Dr. Arthur O. Pritchard, chairman of the War Fund drive here, "the answer will be found in—(1)—the spirit of the people of Sierra Madre, which says 'We have always met our quotas in Red Cross, and this time we surely must do our part to stand 'By His Side' and—(2)—in the use of this schedule as a guide in giving:

20 persons giving 100—2,000
50 persons giving 100—2,500
75 persons giving 25—1,875
225 persons giving 10—2,250
325 persons giving 5—1,625
Under, persons giving 5—550

"This year, more than ever before, we will have to have the full cooperation of every Sierra Madrean. Only through this co-operation can we expect to carry out the tremendous obligations of the Red Cross during the coming year, obligations to our sons and daughters in the armed forces the world over, and to civilians here at home."

Among the many services performed by the Red Cross are:

- (1) Helps servicemen with personal problems and family welfare.
- (2) Aids service families and disabled veterans.
- (3) Operates hundreds of overseas service clubs.
- (4) Collects lifesaving blood.
- (5) Sends food parcels to prisoners of war.
- (6) Recruits Army and Navy nurses.
- (7) Handles emergency messages for servicemen and families.
- (8) Makes surgical dressings.
- (9) Provides comforts, cheer and recreation in hospitals.
- (10.) Helps in civilian disasters.

Mrs. Harold Drury, publicity chairman.

Last Chance

Today, March 2, is the last day for the registration of citizens who wish to vote at the April 11 municipal election at which two members of the city council, a city treasurer and city clerk will be elected. The registrations, of course, not only qualify citizens for the April municipal, the May 16 primary and November general elections, but for all other elections until the voter changes his or her place of residence or fails to vote.

Residents who have moved since the last elections, or who failed to vote at either the primary or general elections of 1942 must register in order to vote.

Registrations will be accepted at the city hall until 5 o'clock this afternoon, and from 7:30 until 9 o'clock tonight.

Rainfall Is Now Nearly 20 Inches

Another series of light showers that started late Tuesday afternoon had left precipitation that measured 28 inches at the city water works by noon yesterday, with indications that the showers would continue through the night. Rainfall to date is officially recorded as 19.41 inches as against 29.03 on the same date a year ago. That measurement was taken before the memorable three-day storm of March 3, 1943, that resulted in considerable damage to the city and the area round about and in which a number of downtown business places, including the office of the Sierra Madre News, were flooded.

Street Superintendent Joseph Swanson said yesterday that careful check-up following the storm that began Feb. 19 failed to show any damage here. The new check channel north of Auburn avenue and the new storm drain under the Pacific Electric station proved very effective during the heavy runoff. All the drains were kept open so that the downpour caused not even slight inconvenience.

With a snow blanket as much as 10 feet deep in places on the mountain just above the city the temperature was held under 50 degrees in the city during the week, dropping nearly to the freezing point Sunday morning. Temperatures and rainfall for the week have been:

	Max.	Min.
Feb. 24	58	42
Feb. 25	58	42
Feb. 26	57	45
Feb. 27	56	34

Daniel C. Millard, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Millard, 30 Windsor lane, will be inducted into the Navy on March 4th when he leaves the employ of the Arroyo Seco Hospital Maintenance Service. His wife and children, Charles and Gail, will reside in Altadena.

Republicans Organize for Campaign

The Sierra Madre Republican Club was reorganized for the 1944 campaign at a meeting in the council chamber of the city hall Monday evening, when plans were made for the registration of new residents of the city and to assist in seeing to it that Sierra Madre men in the armed services shall be able to participate in this year's important elections.

Frank A. Spencer, chairman of the club in 1942, called the meeting to order. At his request, those present stood while Dr. A. O. Pritchard offered a short but moving prayer, expressing gratitude for the many blessings of this country. He asked for Divine help and guidance for all its citizens, especially for those in the armed services and officials directing the nation's course.

A large part of the meeting was devoted to details concerning qualifications for and securing of registrations of newcomers to the city. The chairman urged that each individual consider this his or her job among neighbors and friends.

Anyone who has moved into the city or changed residence within the city since the 1942 election should register at the city hall. Also anyone who failed to vote in either the August or November election of 1942 must reregister.

A committee composed of Mrs. J. H. Wright, Mrs. Frank Spencer and Mrs. Bruce McGill was appointed to take general charge of this activity. The last day for registration for the city election is March 2nd and the last day for the May 16th primary is April 6th, the chairman reminded the audience.

It was announced that a committee will shortly be named to cooperate with veteran organizations to inform service men and women from this city how they can obtain absentee ballot under California law. Notification will be sent to every service man and woman of voting age whose mailing address can be obtained. Relatives and friends of these men and women are urged to give the names and latest addresses to some member of the committee or to the secretary, who can be reached by phone at 4894.

Miss Jessie Dunning made a suggestion that the officers of the club arrange, if possible, for debates between candidates and also for debates on international and domestic objectives and procedures.

New officers elected for the year are: G. H. Alspach, chairman; Frank A. Spencer, vice chairman; Daniel H. Lewis, treasurer; Jessica H. Wright, secretary; directors, Mrs. Maybelle Barker, Noren W. Eaton, Richard S. Jensen, Mrs. W. R. Morgan and Mark D. Welsher.

Another Honor for Local Bank Head

President R. C. Lewis of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank has been appointed chairman of the legislative committee of the Independent Bankers Association of California, an organization of 65 community-owned banks with total resources of over seven hundred million dollars. Announcement of Mr. Lewis' appointment was made at the monthly dinner meeting in Los Angeles last week. Mr. Lewis was recently elected vice president of the association.

2,000 Nazis Coming to Santa Anita

War Prisoners Will Relieve Men at Santa Anita of Duty As Laborers

Protests from the Arcadia city council against the use of Camp Santa Anita as a war prisoners camp for the detention of Nazi soldiers and their employment in this area to relieve the manpower shortage, has brought a telegram from Congressman Jerry Voorhis announcing that not more than 2,000 prisoners will be assigned to the camp and that they will be employed only as laborers to relieve soldiers at the camp. The telegram from Voorhis said:

"War department informs me camp Santa Anita to continue as training and equipment maintenance center for our Army. Two thousand prisoners of war to be brought there for use as laborers to relieve the soldiers of this type of work."

"In other words these prisoners to be labor force for our Army camp whose personnel will continue many times as large as number of war prisoners. I am informed this plan being used in other Army camps in our country."

PLEASURE SEEKERS TRAPPED IN DEEP SNOW ABOVE CITY SKI OUT OF WILDERNESS

"A lot of the roads up there will not be opened for weeks and some of the cars buried in the snow in the back country will not come out until late in the spring," said Harry Lovejoy of W. Grand View ave. after skiing out of the snowbound Mt. Wilson area just above Sierra Madre, last Thursday.

He and five other youths hiked 13 miles from Newcomb's ranch to the Red Box divide on skis, then walked 11 miles through the partially cleared Angeles Crest highway into La Canada. They were the first of 150 or more persons caught in the nearby mountain resorts to get back to civilization after the storm that broke Saturday, February 19, and left eight feet of snow at Chilo, five at Red Box and

Two Seeking Re-election To the City Council

JOHN FROELICH

WILLIAM J. SCHILTZ

Froehlich and Schiltz File Petitions as Candidates As Deadline Nears

Though only nine days remain for the filing of nominating petitions by candidates for the four positions to be filled at the April 11 municipal election, only two candidates have appeared. They are John Froehlich, mayor, and William J. Schiltz who seek re-election to the city council. Petitions in behalf of their candidacies were filed yesterday afternoon.

No blank petitions have been taken out or for any other councilmanic candidates. Petitions are in circulation for City Clerk Waverly E. Pratt and Carlton J. Pegler, city treasurer, who will be candidates for re-election to their positions. March 11, at 12 o'clock noon, is the deadline for the filing of petitions for candidates for any of the offices to be filled.

The nominating petition of Mayor Froehlich is signed by Mrs. Jessica H. Wright, 265 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Dr. Chas. L. Herbert, 223 N. Mt. Trail ave., Mark D. Welsher, 542 Ramona ave., J. Milton Steiberger, 501 Mariposa ave., Woodson F. Jones, 124 E. Alegria ave., Andrew E. Liscomb, 51 W. Laurel ave., Henry Behner, 39 Windsor lane, Lloyd B. Welch, 51 N. Baldwin ave., Henry M. Olsen, 34 N. Baldwin ave., and Emile E. Smith, 249 Wilson st.

Hawks, 75 Lowell ave., and Woodson F. Jones, 124 E. Alegria ave.

Gas Ration Books To Be Checked

Beginning the week of March 6, OPA will attempt to check all gasoline ration books to see that the coupons are properly endorsed with license number and state, as part of the nationwide campaign against black markets in gasoline. Motorists found with unendorsed coupons will be notified to report to their local board within 10 days with endorsed books. Anyone who fails to do this faces revocation of rations.

Voice of the Andes To Be Heard Sunday At Bethany Church

Clarence W. Jones, co-director of radio station HCJB known as the "Voice of the Andes" will be heard at the Bethany Church Sunday evening at 7:30. This station is located in Quito, Ecuador, nearly on the equator, and 10,000 feet high. Mr. Jones has a vision of such a station for the furtherance of the gospel at this, the most advantageous point in the world for broadcasting. The programs go out in eight different languages continuously and have often been heard by Sierra Madre residents. Mr. Jones will show pictures of his work.

Surgical Dressing Squad Called for Invasion Quota

The local Red Cross Chapter is making an urgent appeal to its faithful workers in surgical dressings to help fill the big invasion quota. A generous shipment of 2-inch gauze has arrived, so that maximum production is in order, and the services of women who can put in regular hours will be greatly appreciated. However, those who have only a few hours a week to give are equally welcome. The immediate need for surgical dressings cannot be overemphasized; and women are urged to donate any spare time on Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:30 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Postman-poet Will Talk to Arts Guild

March meeting of the Sierra Madre Arts Guild will be held Friday evening, March 3rd, at the Wistaria Vine Gardens. Harlan Ware, well known writer, will introduce the speaker, Matthew Biller, Arcadia "postman-poet", author of a number of books of verse.

VICTORY GARDENS ARE DOUBLY IMPORTANT NOW, SAYS HEAD OF LOCAL GARDEN CLUB

By F. D. R. MOOTE

Pres. Sierra Madre Garden Club With the recent government announcement of 40% cut in the allocations of canned vegetables to civilians, comes the realization that vegetables, already scarce and soaring in price, will be more scarce this year.

The only obvious answer to the problem is to increase the number, size and quality of victory gardens. I use the word "quality" advisedly, for Sierra Madre is a foothill town, whose soil is almost always deficient in humus. Everything that makes good compost should be saved, and, when well rotted, spread over the soil and spaded in. By the judicious use of compost and fertilizer, any spot in Sierra Madre can be made available for successfully growing vegetables.

As for cultural directions, the best booklet on the market is available through the courtesy of the Sierra Madre News, and any one desiring a copy can obtain one free by applying at that office. Also, an equally good pamphlet on Pest Control can be had at the same time.

So if you have a vacant space with five hours or more exposure to the sun, there is no reason why you cannot grow vegetables. You'll work harder, but you'll get lots of satisfaction, not only because of your contribution to the path to victory, but also in the enjoyment of fresh products of the soil.

EXHIBITION OF ANTIQUE CERAMICS BRINGS OUT MANY SPECIMENS OF GREAT VALUE

There were more than a hundred entries at the recent exhibition of antique ceramics sponsored by the Woman's Society of the Congregational church, which proved to be an outstanding event, attracting exhibitors from Pasadena and other cities and concluding with a lecture on old porcelain by Mrs. Herbert Shaw, of Hollywood, an authority on the subject.

The entries were artistically arranged on long tables in Pritchard Hall, with Mrs. Lottie Elwood of Pasadena having the largest individual display which included rare English Davenport, Spode, Lowenstoft, old German Furstenberg pieces. Miss Edith Yeoman of Sierra Madre, had the most ancient exhibit, her platters, bowls and bread jar dating back to 1635. Mrs. J. C. Dickson entered a tea set from Queen Victoria's kitchen, and there were several interesting doll tea-sets.

Of historic interest was the complete set on tray, entered by Mrs. Arnold Bode. It had belonged to her grandmother, Mary Wisner, great-granddaughter of Henry Wisner, member of the First Continental Congress. Others who displayed sets were Margaret Bode, Muriel Tarr and Mrs. A. R. Porterfield.

Lustre ware deserving special mention was the 16-piece pink tea set of 150 years ago owned by Roland Adams, a group of lustre pitchers by Mrs. J. Staden Miller, and a strawberry lustre cream and sugar set and lustre tea-pot by Mrs. W. L. Porterfield.

Three sets of wedding ring china were on display, the owners being Mrs. Homer Glidden, Mrs. C. W. Jones and Mrs. John Foote.

Single entries of interest were as follows:—Staffordshire soup tureen by Mrs. Grace Lewis; vase, 1368, Ming dynasty, Dr. A. O. Pritchard; inlaid Wedgwood-Jasper jewel box by Mrs. Edith Bowen; early American Indian water jar, 400 years old, found in a prehistoric cliff dwelling in Arizona, by Mrs. W. B. Heagerty; tea set, Royal English Doulton-Cradle ware, by Ann Rogers; batter jug, early New England, by Miss Martha Pritchard.

Organizations exhibiting included the Dickens-Fellowship, with an interesting collection of cups, plates, and figurines, portraying characters from the well known novels. These were arranged on a Dickens table-cloth owned by Mrs. N. W. Tarr.

The Old Adobe shop also had a fine display of rare pieces of Spode, Wedgwood, Bloor Derby, Crown Derby and Chelsea Derby. Many other rare pieces helped to make the exhibit an outstanding one.

In her talk Mrs. Shaw traced the beginning of porcelain from its origin with the Chinese down thru the centuries, illustrating her lecture with samples of soft and hard porcelain in Cologne ware, Holland Delft, Willow, Wedgwood, and Wooster ware. She concluded by remarking that any china or pottery dating from the year 1851, the Crystal Palace period, backward may be recognized as antique.

After the lecture a silver tea was served at a beautifully appointed table with flower arrangement by Ann Rogers. Mrs. W. S. Hull, chairman, was responsible for this fascinating exhibition, assisted by the reception committee, committee on arrangements and tea committee.

Bethany Women to Hear Missionaries

The monthly meeting of the Bethany Missionary Society will be held next Tuesday, March 7th, at 10:30 A.M. Mrs. Curtis Elliot, whose work has been among American negroes in Overland, Ohio, will be the morning speaker. Tommie Titconde, pioneer missionary from the Sudan interior, and recently returned from there, will speak at 2 P.M. B. N. Neufeld, recently returned from Northern Algeria, will deliver the devotional message. There will be a "pot luck" luncheon.

The public is cordially invited. Miss Lois Childers of Sierra Madre will be soloist.

Geraldine Davis Is Bride of Pasadena Army Lieutenant

Geraldine Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heston Davis, of So. Hermosa ave. was married February 23rd, to Lieut. Harry George Charles Neumann, of Hollywood, at the Church of the Angels, Pasadena. Miss Nancy Perry, of Sierra Madre, was maid of honor; her fiancé, Lt. William R. Mullen, of Detroit, was best man. The bride is the 4th generation Davis to be born in California, being a great-granddaughter of William Heath Davis, author of "Seventy-Five Years in California". She is a graduate of Pasadena Junior College. Lieut. Neumann, a graduate of UCLA, is member of Alpha Beta Chapter of Theta Xi and Secretary of the 20-30 Club. The newlyweds are spending a few days at Palm Springs.

Navy Man and Bride Honored at Party

A family dinner was given February 16th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bever, at 187 Lowell ave., in honor of their granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vaughan, who were married January 27th, in Yuma, Ariz.

The bride is the former Mary Ellen Bever, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bever, of Bell Gardens. Howard Vaughan is with the Navy, stationed at Santa Ana.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Howard, and Mrs. C. Howard of Sierra Madre; Mrs. Wenona Hammer, Mrs. Velma Pickrell, Mrs. Eulish Edwards and Mrs. Ruth Lindsay, of Alhambra; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Farnsworth and daughter, Mixie June and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bever and son, Wayne, of El Monte; Seaman Allen Hammer of Port Hueneme, and Mrs. Jerning of East Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bever and daughters, Florence and Donna of Bell Gardens.

Girl Scout Notes

Since Pearl Harbor, the Girl Scouts of the United States have contributed more than $94,000 to foster international friendship and to alleviate the distress of children in all parts of the world. Mrs. Sam Haskins Girl Scout Commissioner, announces these contributions are in addition to the millions of hours of Scout service and private gifts of the girls to welfare agencies.

Sierra Madre Girl Scouts understood what "world friendship" means when they honored the memory of Juliette Low Sunday afternoon Feb. 27 in the Pritchard Hall of the Congregational church when parents and friends arrived to view the different hobbies of the girls. The favorite hobby seemed to be doll collections, there being dolls in costumes from far away lands fitting in with the theme of the month, "World Friendship". Other hobbies were a collection of birds' eggs and nests, sea shells, scrap books, china animal collections of horses, dogs, and cats. In the center of the hall was a table decorated in yellow and green with a replica of an ivy covered Swiss chalet made by Mrs. Bruno Tyron, leader of Troop No. 4. A very fine collection of colorful postcards was displayed on the table also fitting in with the theme.

Seventy-five Brownie Scouts and Intermediate Girl Scouts formed up for the parade, accompanied by their leaders. Each Scout dropped her offering in the chimney of the chalet. This collection amounted to $8.20 and will go to national headquarters to join other funds from all over the United States to help children in need in other lands.

Refreshments were served from a table pretty in yellow and green presided over by Mrs. Ross Marshall, Mrs. Steve O'Donnell and Mrs. J. J. O'Connor—Mrs. Herbert Dowling, publicity chairman.

"The Doctor CAN WAIT"

Yes, most of us have said that very thing at one time or another. We are usually prompt in paying the other bills we owe, but somehow the Doctor's statement gets shuffled to the bottom of the stack. We know that he "won't say anything" if we are a bit tardy with his money. But, are we being quite fair with the man who has rendered so great a service for us? Let's resolve right now that this month we'll at least pay the Doctor "something on account." He will appreciate it.

FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

Because of the recent "uprising" over the condition of one of the old fire trucks, Spears, Ussell and Heasley were ordered by the firemen to immediately begin an investigation to see how conditions may be remedied. Our three heroes ventured into Los Angeles last week to inquire into the possibility of getting a new truck sometime in the not too distant future and the probable cost. The report brought back by the trio was very encouraging as far as the truck is concerned. Their experiences in trying to get around in such a large city after being away from it so long, was a different story.

The drills of Friday brought to the firemen many complications that have been little known. And because a washer was lost, from a connection given a shower that was far from lukewarm.

The fire trucks are showing the effects of the present low grade gasoline. They do not start as easily, nor do they operate as well. During this cold weather, if they are allowed to remain without starting occasionally, much difficulty is experienced in getting them under way.

It was with a lot of pleasure that the members listened to Dick Hawks report on a meeting that he recently attended of the Valley firemen.

Invasion Day Nears

Indications are strong that the day for invasion of Hitler's inner bastions is rapidly approaching. The long anticipated zero hour is near at hand, when millions of Allied soldiers will strike at Hitler's fortress on the European coast, relieving the pressure on the Italian invasion troops to be joined by them, and spear-heading the land attack directly on the Reich.

Some of the indications may be discussed publicly and some may not. The clearing of the Bay of Biscay is one of the latest manifestations of a nearly ready assault. There will be no room in the blue waters for merchantmen when the great invasion armada sails. Printing of "invasion money" is further evidence that preparations are nearly complete. The notes will be provided for our boys' use in both Germany and France. Final solemn proof is the announcement that over 1,000,000 men now civilians will be swept into the armed forces by the draft within the next six months—replacements for men who are ready now to play their part in the greatest invasion story in all history.

Every American regrets the need to pour our youth in an ever-thickening army onto the battle grounds. But our greatest hope is that the invasion Army, when it finally invades, will be so overwhelming in strength and number that the fight will be decisive from the start—that it will be abundantly supplied and supported with all the things it will need to make the job short, swift and final.

Retribution

Pilots returning from one of the heaviest and most recent bombing raids on battered Berlin reported the city a veritable funeral pyre, with the angry glow of flames encompassing the once proud capital of the Reich and with a shroud of smoke towering 20,000 feet into the air.

At the tier of the dead we are usually moved to sorrow and compassion. There are always some who will weep even for those whose lives brought only anguish to their friends and neighbors. But as Berlin becomes a literal hell on earth, consumed by the fiery destruction it sought to inflict on others, we can only hope that never again in the history of our world will such fierce retribution become necessary.

The world will grieve at the funeral pyre of Berlin, not for the Nazi hierarchy, nor the haughty, ruthless Berliners who sold their souls for a mess of Hitler's pottage, but for the innocent and helpless, wherever they may be—even in Berlin—who are the victims of the Reich's crimes against humanity.

Helping to Win

A program to encourage the greater use of foods which require few ration points, or no points at all, will begin this week.

It is the aim of the War Food Administration, which is sponsoring the program, to show American housewives that a good "eating standard" can be maintained even though they pass up the "high-point" items in favor of the more abundant edibles.

America's food marketing system which has attained great efficiency brings to Mrs. America the best food available at low prices. But to gain the full advantage of this service under wartime conditions, she must know how to make her ration points "stretch". The "low-point, no-point" campaign will give her this information.

J. Sidney Johnson, advertising director of the WFA, declared, "If housewives build their meals around more plentiful foods, they are making a practical contribution to the job of making rationing work, because they are easing the pressure on the rationed foods."

This campaign will also serve to help the farmers by stimulating the demand for the more abundant foods.

Buying low-point foods may not impress the average housewife as a very dramatic part in the war effort. Yet such cooperation is one of the many things that go into the pattern of an earlier victory.

It's Cock-eyed

With hundreds of thousands of additional workers still being recruited in the East for California war plants, the State Department of Employment has revealed that there was a 48 per cent increase in unemployment insurance payments in California during December.

It doesn't take an expert to know that there's something very peculiar in that situation. One Federal official says that the sharp increase in people on relief, even when there's a shortage of manpower, is due to the fact that there were layoffs in seasonal industries. Another official, with greater frankness reports that "many applicants go unemployed because they will not accept employment they can secure."

Whatever the reasons, or whatever the loopholes in our unemployment insurance act, it is imperative that this absurd situation be cleared up at once. We can't afford both a shortage of manpower and an unemployment crisis at one and the same time. It's just too cock-eyed!

Here and There

by Dean A. G. H. Bode

SIX years ago I became a gentleman of leisure, thanks to the provision of a small pension by the Church for which I had worked for 50 years. After a little travel in Europe and meetings with a few of the old friends I had known on a former visit, and then a year's sojourn in a rented house in what Robert Bridges called "Far Pasadena's Roseland", I began to wish, like Paderic Colum's old woman of the roads, for "a little house, a house of my own" and a small garden and some shady trees, where I might spend retirement like the birds in the poem, "gracefully schooling leisure to enliven life."

And schooling reminded me of many old books on my new shelves, and in particular of the Latin poet Horace, whom we used to quote in my young days and who, had just my idea of a place for retirement. He wrote in his Satires:

"Hoc erat in votis, modus agri non ita magnus, Hortus ubi,—et paulum silvae."

Which being interpreted means:

"I felt a wish for one small lot
Of meadow land, a garden plot
Beside a clump of wood."

And one day, being driven along West Montecito avenue, I saw just what Horace described; there was the lot, overhanging by the clump of wood,—oak trees, eucalyptus, maple and others, some on the lot and some branching over from Miss Jameson's. A few orange trees and a view of the mountains, visible between the Evans' charming Australian-looking home and the Krafts' immemorial oaks, made the spot ideal.

With the transfer of various pieces of paper between Mr. Evans, Mr. Neale and ourselves the lot is ours. Thick weeds, knee-high, cover it, and it slopes downward from the street. Mr. Trimble gets at it with an obedient mule whose tongue hangs out, and a plough and a scraper; we mark the lines for a foundation of the house; Jack and Dave Buchan divert truck loads of gravel to build up a terrace on the slope at the back, and in two and a half months the house is finished and attention can be given to the garden. We must have a column or two about gardens at this time of the year when already the buds are beginning to appear.

WE must take this garden seriously. It will be good to read everything we have on gardens, not only Sunset and Pasadena Star News, but great people's books. There's Lord Bacon. He has an Essay on gardens. We'll look it up. "For gardens," he says, "speaking of those which are indeed prince-like, the contents ought not well to be under 30 acres of ground, to be divided into three parts, a green in the entrance, a heath or desert in the going forth, and the main garden in the midst." We decide we won't need Lord Bacon. Except to note lists of flowers for each month of the year, a gay profusion, but more suitable for a different climate. And we must plan not for 30 acres but the fifth part of one acre.

As Lord Bacon didn't help us much, we remember a passage in Addison's Spectator on the delights to be looked forward to in a garden. It was written in 1712. "You must know, sir, that I look upon the pleasure we take in a garden as one of the innocent delights in human life. A garden was the habitation of our first parents before the Fall. It is naturally apt to fill the mind with calmness and tranquillity, and to lay all its turbulent passions at rest. It gives us a great insight into the contrivance and wisdom of Providence, and suggests innumerable subjects for meditation. I cannot but think the very complacency and satisfaction which a man takes in these works of nature to be a laudable if not a virtuous habit of mind."

Enthusiasm mounts. We must up and plan our garden. A curve is made for a driveway by laying out lengths of rubber hose and bending and pegging long strips of wood. On one side shall be a lawn edged with a hedge of dwarf pittosporums. On the other side a bed of ruffled peonies, wonderful at a penny a plant. And in various places shrubs and flowers, lilacs, cypripediums, geraniums brought by neighbors the week we moved in. And a neighbor brought us, for three dollars, a wagon-load of round white boulders from the bed of the canyon stream to mark our paths in the back garden. And by degrees we planted certain sycamores which we grouped in threes, a crepe myrtle and a pomegranate, a honeysuckle by the trellis and a magnolia in front. But perhaps this is just the usual thing.

And so one could sit and meditate and rest and stroll and watch the plants grow and the flowers appear, in laudable and complacent satisfaction.

BUT no. Soon little heaps of dirt appear showing a gopher at work and on his way to our best shrub. The neighbor's cat is welcome as he crouches down watching. I heard that the cats caught one day brought home a gopher with trap, chain, coat hanger and all. We seem to have finally discouraged them. But the row of primulas are all eaten by slugs and snails. I spread snail and slug bait and make quite a catch on a damp morning. Cutworms eat through the stocks. The geraniums caught the mealy bug from the ants. Lord Bacon "had something" in his Essay when he wrote: "An ant is a wise creature for itself but it is a shrewd (injurious) thing in a garden." From the weeds in the vacant lot black caterpillars come over to devour the hollyhocks. A great grasshopper did much damage to tender shoots 'till one day with a sweep of my hand I caught him in the geraniums, and was much interested to find he exactly resembled one which I caught clinging tired to the rigging of my ship in the Mediterranean off the coast of Egypt, surely a descendant of Pharaoh's locusts. But we won't let these pests get us down. In the evening we may read Sir John Mandeville's account of the snails he met with on his travels. In the isle of Calanok, he tells us, gardeners are evilly distressed by reason of the snails, that be so great that many persons may lodge in their shells, as men would do in a little house. Well, we are not so evilly distressed as that. And there will be compensations. When you have a garden you have birds, and that is another story. And there's the story of how our kind of gardens came to be, with flowers and plants from all over the world. So more anon.

Maybe You Know...

Our third wartime Easter parade will be as replete with novelty and color as ever, despite a lot of shortages, according to fashion experts. Wool suits will be featured, for wool is, next to metals, the most plentiful of the materials which were critical when we entered the war. Cotton dresses will be scarce. Plenty of novelty millinery in a wide range of styles—from the little "half-hats" that puzzle fashion-ignorant men to the more elaborate homburgs and high crowns.

Long suffering males are to get more comfortable clothing. When Government restrictions end, suits will be made giving greater freedom for arm movement and more comfort around the waistband when men are seated. The changes are hailed as the "first definite advance in designs in 100 years." It's about time!

Since its organization in 1850, the population of Los Angeles County has increased almost 100,000 per cent—from 3,530 to 3,225,000 estimated Jan. 1, 1944—according to W. C. Mullendore, president of the Los Angeles County Chamber of Commerce. "In celebrating the county's 94th birthday," Mullendore said, "there are numerous other comparisons which also tell us something of the miraculous development wrought by free enterprise and Yankee ingenuity here since 1850. Today we have almost 6,000 manufacturing plants now employing close to 500,000 workers. The 1850 census lists but one industrial establishment, a bakery operated by John Behn & Co., employing two laborers. Women now constitute 43 per cent of the working force of the seven major Pacific Coast airplane manufacturing companies."

At the end of 1943 the Aircraft War Production Council companies—Boeing, Consolidated, Vultee, Douglas, Lockheed, North American, Northrop and Ryan—had 292,214 persons on their payrolls, of whom 123,273 were women, representing 42.57 per cent of the total. In November 1929, 798 women were working, and they constituted 43.48 per cent of all employees.

During December, 1943, 947 California motorists had their licenses either suspended or revoked. This represents an improvement over December, 1942,

"and that includes Electrical Appliances!"

Your faithful electrical appliances, too, deserve a careful cleaning and checkup—not just once or twice a year, but regularly! They will work better and last longer if you take proper care of them. Here are some suggestions:

Defrost your refrigerator regularly. During defrosting, clean its interior with baking soda solution. Wipe up spilled food immediately. Don't leave water, grease or dirt on the door gasket.

Keep your toaster spotlessly clean. Wipe it with a damp cloth after it has cooled, removing stubborn discolorations with silver polish. Do not place any part of the toaster in water.

tachment of an Engineers Battalion. Mrs. Kennedy is employed in the local office of the Southern Counties Gas Co.

Corp. Robert B. Ward, of the Army Air Corps, stationed at Amarillo, Texas, is home on a two-weeks' furlough, visiting his wife, at 290 W. Highland ave. and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ward, at 270 W. Highland ave.

James C. Heasley, M.M. 2/c qualified as a sharpshooter on the rifle range at Camp Peary, Va., last week. He speaks almost affectionately in his letters to friends here of the U.S. Marine rifle with which he made the grade. "It is sure a fine little rifle, especially for short range, and has been found best for jungle fighting, though each squad has its own weapon," he wrote P. L. Bonebrake in a letter received yesterday. "We have just a few more weeks training here and will then be transferred to some advanced base. I hope it will be in California." In letters to his father, Fire Chief "Jim" Heasley, and his wife, Mrs. Barbara Heasley, he tells of a rainy spell of more than two weeks duration during which his outfit wallowed in an ocean of mud while taking infiltration training.

Ed McCloskey of the Army Air Corps had a surprise when he arrived from his post at Kingman, Ariz., on a 12-day furlough. One of the first persons he ran into in Sierra Madre was his cousin, Don Miller of the Coast Guard, home on week-end leave from his station in the Malibu area. McCloskey, who makes his home here with his brother, Joe of Lima st., heard in Kingman that Miller had shipped out and was up in the Aleutian Islands. "Not yet," Miller told him, "but not telling how soon I will be there—or in some other far away place."

Lt. (j.g.) Ernest Pegler, aboard a sub-chaser in the Panama zone writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Pegler, of 415 E. Orange Grove ave., that he likes his "under-sea" job, and has never had a cold.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lieben, of 632 W. Montecito, rejoiced at Monday's news that the largest convoy of American service men ever to cross the Atlantic had just reached England. Staff Sgt. Robert Lieben, their son, was among them.

Pfc. Frederick Erwin of the Marines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Long, of 639 E. Orange Grove ave., will have been in the service 18 months in May, and hopes then to come home on a furlough, states a letter received Friday by his parents.

OBITUARIES

MISS C. MACKEPFRANG

Miss Claudine Mackepfrang of Long Beach died Sunday the 27th, at the home of Mrs. Anna Block, 544 Oakdale dr. She was 83 years old. Services were held at Mottels Chapel, Long Beach, on Tuesday, with interment at Sunnyside Cemetery.

REV. ROBERT C. LEWIS

Rev. Robert Charles Lewis, aged 73, a retired Presbyterian minister, died at his home, 481 Woodland drive, Saturday morning from a heart attack. Born in Belle, Vernon, Pa., Mr. Lewis came to California in 1902, locating in Pasadena. For more than 30 years, "on and off," he has lived in Sierra Madre, except for times he was serving as a minister.

He was a member of the Los Angeles Presbytery, and before taking a pastorate, did evangelistic work for many years. He founded the Lincoln Ave. Presbyterian Church in Pasadena and conducted its Mission Sunday School several years before the church itself was organized in 1913.

He is survived by his wife, Jessie, to whom he was married 51 years; a daughter, Mrs. Nellie Vieira; granddaughters, Jean, Carolyn and Emma Virginia Vieira, of 487 Woodland drive, Sierra Madre, and grandson, Sgt. Robert Lewis Vieira, "somewhere in Australia." Also a granddaughter, Mrs. Olive Dennee and great grandson, Glenford Dennee, Jr., of Saratoga, Calif. and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Rose of 281 San Gabriel ct., Sierra Madre, and Mrs. Wm. O. Young, of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Services were held Tuesday at 2 P.M. at the Lincoln Ave. Presbyterian Church, Pasadena, with Rev. Vernon McGee, its pastor; Rev. S. R. Sherif, of Sierra Madre, and Rev. Jameson, of Los Angeles, officiating. Interment was at Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena.

Anticipating that her husband, George Tyler, will shortly be called into the armed forces, Mrs. Tyler, the former Helen Jackson, has arranged to return to Sierra Madre with her son for the duration. They will reside with her mother, Mrs. Gladys Jackson of Auburn ave. They have been living in Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Buie have given up their residence in Burbank and returned to Sierra Madre to live among their friends of many years standing. They have bought and are living in the former Ray Hudson house at 175 E. Montecito ave.

Aviation Machinist Mate Thomas Haugh, stationed at Los Alamitos Bay, visited over the weekend at the home of Mrs. Margaret Shrike, at 182 Highland ave. Seaman Haugh was a former shipmate of Mrs. Shrike's son-in-law, Raymond Thompson, who resides with his wife and daughter, Donna, at 89 Auburn ave. Mr. Thompson, after six years service, was discharged from the Navy in October, 1941, and is now employed at Vard's, Pasadena defense plant.

Mrs. Ludmilla Kiosloff, proprietress of the "Russian Izba," in Hollywood, and her chef, Mrs. Morgan, were unusual guests at the Hotel Sierra Madre cafe Sunday. They both donned aprons and helped serve the overflow for the evening meal. Mrs. John S. Fergus, owner, managed the "Izaba" last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo M. Culum, former residents, have made several trips to Sierra Madre in the last few days visiting old friends and incidentally trying to find a home here, which they find is very difficult. Mr. Culum is now employed in a Los Angeles defense plant and the family is living in Baldwin Park.

Mrs. Steve Petzel, former well known resident of Canyon Park, now living in Altadena, was here late last week to visit friends and her daughter, Mrs. John Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Walters of 614 Grand View ave., have as their house guest, Mrs. Fred M. Weigert of Marinette, Wis. Mrs. Weigert is a sister of Mrs. Walters.

Victor Hill was in from his home near Hemet over the weekend to visit his mother, Mrs. Hortense Hill of 251 S. Baldwin ave.

After five years' residence in Eastern ports, Mrs. C. W. Sands, formerly of Long Beach is making her home with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Shrike at 182 W. Highland ave. Chief Machinist Mate C. W. Sands, nine years in the Navy, is now "somewhere in the Pacific."

Miss Catherine Larson, an Alhambra friend of Mrs. Ross G. Marshall, of Olivera Place, has been making her home with the Marshalls for the past three weeks while seeking suitable living quarters here for her parents and self.

Home from the University of California at Berkeley for a weeks vacation, Miss Janet Lewis, daughter of Mrs. Daniel H. Lewis of W. Orange Grove ave., was accompanied by her room-mate at Stern Hall, Miss Leavell, of Lincoln, Calif.

Mrs. Maj. Sena, niece, and Mrs. Lillian Duncan, cousin of Mrs. John S. Mompier, 543 E. Orange Grove ave., are leaving today for their home in Chicago after a months visit here.

Mrs. Gilbert Klippel, of the former Miss Mary Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Rose, of 211 E. Orange Grove ave., is expected home on the 6th after a year's absence to make her home with her parents for the duration. Mrs. Klippel has been with her husband, Lt. Gilbert Klippel, in training at a Texas air field, and for the past two months at Lake Wales, Fla.

Mrs. Elsie Cooper of Cleveland, Ohio, spending the winter in Pasadena, is visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Greene, 367 N. Adams st.

On a two-months leave of absence from her employment as a nurse in Denver, Colo., Miss Dorothy Perkins and her mother, Mrs. Anna Perkins, came to Sierra Madre for a vacation and are residing at 672 Brookside lane in Canyon Park. They are so pleased with Sierra Madre, notwithstanding the recent storms and cool weather, that they will probably become permanent residents here.

Miss Grace Mann, employed near San Diego, has bought the cabin at 60 Holly Trail in Canyon Park and seeks its rest and quiet every other week, hoping to enjoy more of it this summer. She was in Sierra Madre over the week-end.

Guest over last week-end at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Fredric Grootsema, at 169 So. Baldwin, was Ensign Schuyler Davies, in the Meteorological Service of the U. S. Navy. Ensign Davies, a member of Rev. Grootsema's former parish in Delavan, Wis., is stationed at U. C. L. A.
